[] FRONTIER FARM CREDIT

CAREER WORKSHOP: Building Your Professional Network

SPEAKER: Jackie Mundt, Kanza Coop

Frontier Farm Credit is dedicated to serving the agricultural credit, risk management and financial needs of farmers and ranchers in eastern Kansas. It's part of the Farm Credit System, a nationwide agricultural network providing credit and affiliated services to farm and ranch operators across the United States. Overall, the Farm Credit System supplies the nation's agricultural industry with nearly one-third of its credit needs.

[] WHEAT INNOVATION CENTER

CAREER WORKSHOP: Getting the Most Out of an Internship Experience

SPEAKER: Hilary Worcester, Mid Kansas Coop

The Kansas Wheat Innovation Center was built by the Kansas Wheat Commission, through the Kansas wheat checkoff, to get improved wheat varieties into the hands of farmers faster. It represents the single largest research investment by Kansas wheat farmers in history and is home to research laboratories, greenhouses, a test kitchen and offices for a variety of wheat-related organizations.

[] KANSAS FARM BUREAU

WORKSHOP ROUND 1

1 LAND VALUES & RENTAL RATES

► BIG BASIN/KAW NATION

Dr. Mykel Taylor,
Kansas State University

This session will cover information on Kansas agricultural land values and trends. We will discuss the factors driving the land market and how farmers and ranchers may be affected by lease rates in a tough economic environment.

1 MARKET VOLATILITY:

Good or Bad? Your Choice! (Part 1)

► ALCOVE

Jared Morgan,
INTL FC Stone Financial, Inc.

Everyone in agriculture faces market volatility on a daily basis. Some don't know they are at risk, some don't understand this risk and most do not know how to manage their price risk. This session will help you identify, understand and manage price risk and even how to take advantage and benefit from market volatility.

1 ESTABLISHING A FARM

► TUTTLE

Kaden Roush, R Family Farms
Scott Thellman, Juniper Hill Farms

Do you have a goal of making farming your career? Whether you come from an ag background or not, taking the first steps to establish a new farm or your footprint on an existing family farm can be overwhelming. These speakers will discuss what they've found successful, share tips and resources and try to help you avoid the mistakes they wish they hadn't made.

1 RUMP ROAST & ROUND STEAKS

.... Does Your Freezer Runneth Over?

► McDOWELL

Chef Alli

Join Chef Alli in the YF&R "Kitchen" to gather up some fun, new recipes and ideas for the two cuts of beef that we always seem to have plenty of: round steak and roast. Chef Alli is bringing R2D2 to share how time spent with him gets a weekly meal plan started off right!

WORKSHOP ROUND 2

1 POSITIVE RISK TAKING

Because You Don't Know Until You Try

▶ BIG BLUE RIVER/FORT RILEY

Katie Sawyer,
Sawyer Land & Cattle

We all have a choice between the routine and the unknown. You make decisions every day, but do you make those decisions with an eye toward simplicity or opportunity? It's easy to take the predictable path but what if success awaits down the path less taken? Will you take the unknown course, and should you take the risks presented to you? This session looks at the when, where and how to consider risks, take risks and learning from positive risk taking.

2 EMBRACING CHANGE

On Your Operation

▶ TUTTLE

Kim Baldwin,
Baldwin Farms & Papa Baldy's Popcorn

Russel Kohler,
Kohler Creamery & AFBF YF&R Chair

Jay Schwinn,
Salt Creek Valley Farms

Does something on your farm need to change in order to survive? Do you have a dream for what your farm could be but haven't had the courage to try it yet? This panel of presenters will share their insight on the advantages, challenges, stress and enjoyment and of embracing change and trying something new.

2 REPRESENT!

▶ McDOWELL

Mike Matson,
Kansas Farm Bureau

What do your friends and neighbors think of you, your family, your farm? Your involvement in Farm Bureau can go a long way in helping ensure the perception others have of you is positive. Join Mike Matson, KFB's Director of Industry Affairs, for an interactive session related to personal brand management.

WEB: www.kfb.org

2 BOOKKEEPING

Dos and Don'ts

▶ BIG BLUE RIVER/FORT RILEY

Mark Dikeman,
Kansas Farm Management Association

Everyone loves bookkeeping! Ok, maybe not everyone....but accurate, up-to-date records are an essential part of any farm business and are an important tool for any farm decision maker. This session will review the basics of bookkeeping and explore some of the habits and practices of experienced bookkeepers.

WEB: www.agmanager.info/kfma

3 IT'S NOT ALL ABOUT THAT BEEF

▶ TUTTLE

Mindy Young,
M. Young Farms & Truck Garden

Mark Flory,
Flory Family Farms

Join this panel to gain insight into some of the lesser-discussed animals in Kansas agriculture. These members are embracing their love for sheep, goats, hogs and more and want to share their knowledge and build a community of farmers and ranchers who face different challenges and opportunities than their beef cattle friends down the road.

3 KFB'S MISSION FOR AFFORDABLE HEALTH CARE

▶ McDOWELL

Terry Holdren,
Kansas Farm Bureau

For young farmers and ranchers purchasing their own health insurance, the out-of-pocket expense many face in premiums, deductibles and uncovered expenses are devastating to the operation and family budget, causing many to seek off-farm employment simply for an affordable way to access health care. Kansas Farm Bureau thinks this is unacceptable and is working on your behalf to fix the problem. Join us for this session to discuss the opportunities ahead and become part of the solution for your family and those like you all over the state.

WEB: www.kfb.org

WORKSHOP ROUND 4

3 IMPACT OF TAX CUTS & JOBS

On Farming and Ranching

► BIG BLUE RIVER/FORT RILEY

Roger McEwen,
Washburn University School of Law

The new tax law impacts tax and business planning in numerous ways. This session will show how a farming/ranching business can get the most benefit out of the new rules on trades, deductions, depreciation, the lower corporate rate and the new pass-through deduction among other items.

WEB: www.washburnlaw.edu/waltr

SOCIAL MEDIA: @WashburnWALTR

4 CATTLE NUTRITION

Part 2: Emerging Technologies & Research

► ALCOVE

Gary Niehues,
Purina Animal Nutrition

Where is the future of the feed industry headed? Join us to take a deep dive into where current research is pointing us for future innovation in beef cattle nutrition.

WEB: www.purinamills.com

FACEBOOK: @PurinaCattle
.....

4 MAKING SENSE OF COMPETING PRIORITIES

► TUTTLE

Clay Aurand, Edie Dahlsten,
& Christy Springer

As a young person in agriculture, there many things demanding your attention. How do you balance a desire to be successful in your career, active in your community and serve your family well? These three farmers, leaders and parents, who represent different phases of life, will share their wisdom for finding what's important and doing it to the best of your ability.

4 4R NUTRIENT STEWARDSHIP & WATER QUALITY

► McDOWELL

Dr. Nathan Nelson,
Kansas State University

This session will review some of the nutrient-related water quality concerns in Kansas and discuss how the 4R nutrient stewardship (right source, right placement, right timing and right rate) can be used to reduce nutrient loss. Research data will be presented on how nutrient management and cover crops impact water quality, crop yield and economics.

CLOSING KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Matt Rush

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

U.S. Ambassador
▶ GREGG DOUD

Gregg Doud serves as the chief agricultural negotiator, with the rank of Ambassador, in the Office of the United States Trade Representative. Prior to Ambassador Doud's nomination, he was president of the Commodity Markets Council, a senior professional staff member of the Senate Agriculture Committee for Sen. Pat Roberts and Sen. Thad Cochran, and the chief economist for the National Cattlemen's Beef Association. Ambassador Doud was raised on a dry-land wheat, grain sorghum, soybean, swine and cow-calf operation near Mankato in North-Central Kansas, was a 4-H member and a Kansas State FFA officer and received bachelors and masters degrees from Kansas State University.

▶ MATT RUSH

Matt grew up on a farm in New Mexico and brings common sense, "farm boy" logic and humor to his speaking. Matt has served as the former CEO of the New Mexico Farm Bureau and past president of Ethos Leadership Group. He has won state and national awards for his public speaking, co-authored several books on leadership and is authoring the upcoming book, "The Power of an Inch". Rush is passionate about his values, helping others and is dedicated to the development of a strong, successful future for our current and upcoming generation.

SOCIAL MEDIA CONTEST

2019

1 On January 25:
Selfie Platform 9 3/4

Upload a photo to Instagram and/or Facebook you took using the flattering bright lights of the selfie station! You will not disappear into it, but it is still magical. Take the photo, have it sent to your phone or email and upload it to Instagram and/or Facebook.

2 On January 26:
Thank u, next

Upload a photo to Instagram and/or Facebook saying thank you to a conference sponsor or tradeshow vendor. Creativity is key here, folks. If the company is on social media, be sure to tag their handle. (See next page for sponsors and vendors.)

3 Drop some Knowledge

Upload a photo of a workshop, ag tour or policy issue with a tidbit of information you learned.

4 You don't look 100

At lunch, you will learn about Kansas Farm Bureau's centennial celebration. Share a photo during the session and comment on how you will help keep agriculture thriving for the next 100 years.

5 On January 27:
Rise and Shine!

Upload a photo to Instagram and/or Facebook of you or someone from your district catching (or attempting to catch) their pancakes from Chris Cakes.

EXTRA POINTS for one-handed catches!
